

Maria Polynesia

Fiji, Alaska firstlast@email.com 555-555-5555

Compassionate oncology nurse with two years of experience seeking a full-time position. Assertive, detail-oriented, and passionate about how cancer impacts patients and families.

Key Qualifications

- Advocate for patients
- Possess an active oncology nurse certification
- In-depth understanding of cancer etiology, treatments, and psychological impacts

Education

Oceania Nursing School, Tonga, Alaska, 20XX

Professional Experience

Hawaii Hospital, Oncology Nurse, 20XX–present

- Responsible for 4 patients per 12-hour shift on an oncology unit.
- Administer chemotherapy and other medications per physician's order and as needed.
- Monitor for medication side effects.
- Educate patients and families about cancer etiology, treatments, and side effects.
- Communicate pertinent information to other members of the healthcare team.

Samoa Community Hospital, Staff Nurse, 20XX–20XX

- Responsible for 6 patients on a medical surgical unit.
- Administered medications and monitored for side effects.
- Delegated appropriate tasks to nursing assistants.
- Closely monitored patients who were fall risks.
- Educated patients and families as needed.
- Communicated pertinent information to the healthcare team.

Skills

Epic, Powerchart, Clear Communication

Certifications and Licenses

- Basic life support (BLS)
- Oncology nursing certification (ONC)