

Aisha Aziz, RN, MSN, CCNS

Colombia Street, CA | firstlast@email.com | 444-444-4444

Efficient and community-oriented clinical nurse specialist who focuses on diabetes education. Committed to ensuring healthcare staff can effectively treat diabetic patients. Dedicated to helping patients attain the quality of life they desire.

Key Qualifications

- 25 years of clinical experience in medical-surgical units and urgent care
- 5 years of experience as a diabetes clinical nurse specialist
- Certified diabetes care and education specialist (CDCES)
- Certified clinical nurse specialist (CCNS)

Education

Chile University, Los Angeles, CA 20XX
Masters of Science in Nursing

Peru University, Anaheim, CA, 20XX
Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Professional Experience

Venezuela Hospital, Diabetic Care Consultant, 20XX–present

- Support healthcare team with the management of diabetic patients.
- Answer questions related to diabetes from staff and patients.
- Inform staff of new advancements in diabetes treatment and technology.
- Educate newly diagnosed diabetic patients on disease processes and treatment.

Bolivia Community Care, Diabetes Nurse Educator, 20XX–20XX

- Educated approximately 15 clients daily on diabetic care and prognosis.
- Evaluated patients' diets and access to healthy food sources.
- Assisted patients with obtaining finances for insulin and diabetic healthcare services.
- Helped patients coordinate doctor's appointments.

Ecuador Health, Medical-Surgical Nurse, 19XX–20XX

- Performed and documented patient assessments.
- Communicated pertinent information to the healthcare team.
- Administered medications and monitored for side effects.

- Assisted coworkers with medical emergencies.

Skills

- Clinical assessment and documentation
- Conversational Spanish and Arabic
- Proficient in Powerchart, Epic, and Cerner EMR systems

Certifications and Licenses

- Certified diabetes care and education specialist (CDCES)
- Certified clinical nurse specialist (CCNS)
- Registered nurse (RN)
- Basic life support (BLS)