Nursing Supervisor

[Facility name] is looking for a nursing supervisor (RN) to manage the inpatient nursing team at our beautiful downtown campus. Proudly holding Magnet distinction, we are experts in providing quality, patient-centered care. We achieve this by fostering a healthy work culture, and our competitive benefits and training opportunities are designed to help staff thrive both inside and outside the workplace. If you're interested in joining a top-tier healthcare organization that cares about you, we invite you to explore all of our other benefits below!

Benefits

- 401(k) plans with employer match
- Health, dental, and vision insurance
- Generous PTO and paid holidays
- Tuition reimbursement
- Continuing education (CE) credits

Duties and Responsibilities

- Supervise nursing staff while ensuring effective implementation of clinical guidelines and institutional policies
- Assign, educate, and oversee the activity of nursing staff during assigned shifts
- Facilitate performance evaluations of staff and provide constructive feedback
- Assess patient care needs and develop appropriate assignments
- Evaluate the effectiveness of nursing care and identify areas for improvement
- Aid in the hiring, training, and development of nursing staff and implement policy changes to improve workflow and care quality

Compensation and Schedule

- Pay: $91,000 – $131,000 annual salary range (actual compensation based on experience)
- Hours: Full Time, Days (7am – 7pm)
- Location: Chicago, IL

Skills and Qualifications

- Graduate from an accredited school of nursing (required)
- Active RN license in the state of [insert state] (required)
- BLS certification from the AHA obtained within 30 days of hire date (required)
- At least 2 years of RN experience (required)
- 1 year of experience in a managerial or leadership role (preferred)

Ready to take your career as a nursing supervisor to the next level and lead a top-performing team? Click here to start your application today. We look forward to hearing from you!